[27th June 1817.]

WHEREAS, in consequence of the Consolidation of the Revenues of Great Britain and Ireland, it is become expedient to make further Provision for the Adjustment of the Accounts of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom; and that for that Purpose Quarterly Accounts of the Issues made out of the growing Produce of the Consolidated Fund in Ireland, for the current Services there, should be made up and transmitted to Great Britain, and provided in so manner heretofore mentioned; Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That immediately after the termination of each Quarter of a Year ending upon the Fifth Day of April, the Fifth Day of July, the Tenth Day of October, and the Fifth Day of January respectively in each and every Year, Accounts shall be made up in the Receipt of the Exchequer in Ireland of all Sums which shall have been issued, during the Quarter ending on the said Days respectively, out of the growing Produce of the Consolidated Fund arising in Ireland, specifying separately the Issues made for defraying the Services comprised in the Annual Grants of Parliament, or which would in Great Britain be payable at the Receipt of the Exchequer out of any of the Aids or Supplies of the Year, and specifying also in each and every such Account the Heads of Services for which such Issues were so made; which Accounts shall be certified by the Auditor General of the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer in Ireland, and shall be transmitted by him to the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; and the Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, shall thereupon, by Warrant under his or their Hand or Hands, order and direct that out of any of the Aids or Supplies of the Year as the Receipt of the Exchequer in Great Britain, a Sum or Sums of Money equal to such certified Amount of the Issues made out of the growing Produce of the Consolidated Fund arising in Ireland, for defraying the Services comprised in the Annual Grants of Parliament, or which would in Great Britain be payable at the Receipt of the Exchequer out of any of the Aids or Supplies of the Year, shall be carried and placed to the Credit of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom, for the Quarter ending on the said Quarter Day next ensuing after the Date of such Certificate, and the same shall thereupon be carried and placed to such Account and Credit by the Auditor of the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer in Great Britain; any thing in an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intitled An Act to unite and consolidate into one Fund all the Public Revenues of Great Britain and Ireland, and to provide for the Application thereof to the general Service of the United Kingdom, to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. And Whereas certain Payments have been heretofore made by Law or Usage out of the growing Produce of the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain; Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, from year to year, to make any Payment or Payments to be made, or any Sum or Sums of Money to be issued out of the growing Produce of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom, at the Receipt of the Exchequer in Great Britain, in advance or otherwise, in like manner as had been provided before the passing of the last recited Act of the last Session of Parliament; any thing contained in the said Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

III. And Whereas the Exchequer Bills which have been issued upon the Credit of Aids and Supplies or Services granted by Parliament have been provided for, and the Sums due and to arise from the Surplus of the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain under former Grants of Parliament, and which were applicable to the Discharge of such Exchequer Bills, have by reason thereof become no longer necessary for such Service; Be it therefore enacted, That all Grants made by Parliament, to arise from the Surplus of the said Consolidated Fund, and which Surplus had not accrued prior to the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, and all all Sums due from the said Consolidated Fund to the Aids or Supplies of former Years, in respect of Money advanced thereout to make good the Deficiencies of the said Fund, shall be and be deemed to be struck off and cancelled, and no further Sums shall be issued or disburse thereupon; any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all Balances due from Great Britain to Ireland, or from Ireland to Great Britain respectively, upon or in respect of, or in so many manner arising out of the past Contributions of Great Britain and Ireland to the Expenses of the United Kingdom, under the Provisions of the several Acts passed in the Parliaments of Great Britain and Ireland respectively in the Thirty sixth and Fortieth Years and in the Fortieth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for the Union of Great Britain and

VI. And Whereas it may happen that the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom may at certain times be deficient in Amount to answer the several Charges thereupon arising in Great Britain or Ireland respectively, and it is expedient that Provision should be made for making good such Deficiency, in such the same should arise: Be it therefore enacted, That if, upon making up the Accounts of the Income and Charge of the said Consolidated Fund in Great Britain or Ireland respectively, for the Quarters ending on the Fifth Day of April, the Fifth Day of July, the Tenth Day of October, or the Fifth Day of January in any Year, it shall appear to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, that the Produce of the said Fund is not sufficient to defray the Charges thereupon in Great Britain, or in Ireland respectively, then and in such case it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, or any Three or more of them for the time being, from time to time, by Warrant under their Hands, to issue or direct any Number of Exchequer Bills to be made out in the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer in Great Britain, for such Sum or Sums of Money as shall be sufficient to make up such Deficiency in Great Britain or Ireland respectively; and such Exchequer Bills shall be made out in the same or like manner, Form and Order, and according to the same or like Rules and Directions, as are directed and prescribed in and by an Act made in the Twenty eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for regulating the Issue and paying off of Exchequer Bills.

VII. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Clauses, Provisions, Powers, Privileges, Advantages, Remedies, Testimonials and Disabilities contained in the said several Acts made in the Forty eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for regulating the issuing and paying off of Exchequer Bills, shall be applied and extended in the Exchequer Bills to be made out in pursuance of this Act, as fully and effectually to all intents and Purposes as if the said several Clauses and Provisions had been particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the Exchequer Bills to be made out in pursuance of this Act shall and may bear as interest not exceeding the Rate of Three pence Halfpenny per Centum per Diem upon or in respect of the Whole of the Monies respectively contained therein.

IX. And be it declared and further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and for the Governor and Company of the Bank of Ireland, and they are hereby respectively empowered, to take, accept and receive the Exchequer Bills authorized to be made out in pursuance of this Act, and to advance or lend to His Majesty at the Receipt of the Exchequer in Great Britain or Ireland respectively, upon the Credit of such Exchequer Bills, any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding in the whole the Sum necessary to make good such Deficiency of the Consolidated Fund in Great Britain or Ireland respectively; any thing in an Act made and passed in the Parliament of England, in the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of King William and Queen Mary, intitled An Act for granting to Their Majesties several Rates and Duties upon Tonnage of Ships and Vessels, and upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, and for granting certain Remissions and Advantages in the said Act contained in such Persons as shall voluntarily advance the Sum of One million five hundred thousand Pounds towards carrying on the War against France, or in any other Act or Acts to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

X. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any Three or more of them, shall and they are hereby respectively authorized and empowered to issue such Exchequer Bills as shall be made out in pursuance of this Act, in respect of any Deficiency in the said Consolidated Fund arising in Great Britain, to be placed as so much Cash in the respective Offices of the Tellers of the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer in Great Britain; such and every of which Tellers shall be severally charged with the Proprietorship of the said Bills which shall be so placed in his Office respectively as so much Cash; any Law or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being shall from time to time make a true and perfect Account in Writing to be taken audited by the proper Officers of the Amount of all Exchequer Bills which shall be made out and issued by virtue of this Act, and how much thereof shall be before the making up of such Accounts have been paid off or discharged, and how much thereof shall then remain undischarged; and every such Account shall on or before the Twenty fifth Day of March in each and every Year be laid before both Houses of Parliament, if Parliament shall be then sitting, or if Parliament shall not then be sitting, then within One Month after the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament.

XV. Abstract—This paper presents a new method for detecting and localizing faults in a power system. The method is based on the use of a neural network. The neural network is trained to recognize the fault patterns in the system. The results of the simulation show that the method is effective in detecting and localizing faults in the system.

Militia for the Purpose of being trained and exercised, and also to regulate the Quotas of the several Counties to be regulated: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Parliament relating to the Militia to the contrary notwithstanding.

It. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Forty second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for amending the Laws relating to the Militia in England, and for augmenting the Militia, the Quotas of the Militia of the several Counties, Ridings, Shires, Cities, Towns and Places in Great Britain were specified, and Provisions made for settling and ascertaining other Quotas at Periods specified in the said

• Act; but the Quotas specified in the said Act have since remained and continued, but may require to be regulated before the Expiration of the next Period specified in the said Act; and it is therefore expedient that His Majesty should be empowered to make the Quotas of the Militia to be regulated when the same may become necessary: Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty to order and direct that the Quotas of the several and respective Counties, Ridings, Shires, Cities, Towns and Places in Great Britain, shall be ascertained, fixed, appointed and fixed by His Majesty's Privy Council, in the Manner specified in the said Act, if His Majesty shall deem it necessary, before the Expiration of the next Period fixed in the said Act for fixing and ascertaining such Quotas; and all such Quotas, when so ascertained, fixed, appointed, and fixed in pursuance of any such Order of His Majesty, shall be deemed to be Quotas ascertained, fixed and fixed under the Provisions of the said Act; and all such Proceedings shall be had thereon, for the Purpose of giving Effect thereto, and appointing the same respectively among the Hundreds, Rapes, Lathes, Wapentakes or other Divisions of each County, Riding, Shire, City, Town or Place, and the several Parishes, Tithings and Places therein respectively, in like manner in any respect, and all Powers, Authorities, Regulations, Provisions, Clauses, Provisions and Forfeitures, contained in any Act or Acts relating to the Militia of Great Britain shall be used, applied and enforced for giving effect to such Quotas and Apportionments, and carrying the Laws relating to the Militia into Execution in relation thereto, in like manner in every respect, and as fully and effectually in all Cases and Purposes, as if such Quotas had been ascertained, fixed and fixed as any Period specified in the said recited Act; any thing contained in the said recited Act, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the Militia, to the contrary notwithstanding.

• III. And Whereas Doubts have arisen whether Officers, Sergeants or other Persons enlisting Men to serve the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, are subject to the Provisions, Powers and Provisions contained in the said recited Act of the Forty Second Year after said, in relation to enlisting into His Majesty's other Forces Men enrolled or engaged to serve in the Militia; and whether Militia men enlisting at Militia men offering themselves to serve for any other Parish or Place than the Parish or Place for which they are first enrolled, are within the Provisions of the said Act contained in relation to enlisting to be enrolled in any other Regiment, Battalion or Company of Militia: For Remedy whereof be it declared and enacted, That every Officer, Sergeant or Person who shall wilfully or knowingly enlist any Men to serve the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, who at the time of such enlisting shall be enrolled or engaged to serve in the Militia, shall be and be deemed to be within the Provisions of the said recited Act, and shall be subject to the Provisions and Forfeitures therein contained for enlisting Militia men to serve in His Majesty's other Forces; and that every Militia man offering to enlist to serve the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, who shall deny to the Officer, Sergeant or other Person recruiting Men for such Service, that he is at the time of such offering a Militia man, or who shall offer himself to be enrolled and be enrolled as a Militia man for any other Parish or Place than the Parish or Place for which he shall be then enrolled and serving, although in the same Regiment, Battalion or Corps, shall be subject and liable to the Provisions in the said Act contained for the Punishment and subsequent Service of Militia men offering to enlist in His Majesty's other Forces, or to be enrolled and serve in any other Regiment, Battalion or Corps of Militia; any thing in the said recited Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

• IV. And Whereas by Two Acts passed in the Forty Second Year of His present Majesty's Reize, relating to the Militia of England and Scotland respectively, the Number of Sergeants, Corporals and Drummers to be appointed to the Militia, when not in actual Service, was fixed at the following Proportions; that is to say, One Sergeant and One Corporal to every Thirty Private Men, and One Drummer to every Company, with the Addition of One Drummer to each Flank Company of Regiments or Battalions consisting of more than Two Companies: And Whereas it is expedient that His Majesty should be empowered to diminish these Numbers: Be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders signed by His Majesty's Secretary of State, to direct that the Number of Sergeants, Corporals and Drummers to be retained in the Militia on permanent Pay, when not in actual Service, shall be as follows; that is to say, One Sergeant and One Corporal to every Forty Private Men, and One Drummer for every Two Companies, with an Addition of One Drummer for each Flank Company of Regiments or Battalions consisting of Five or more Companies.

VIII. And to be further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, in all cases where any Goods, Wares, Merchandises, Batts, Carriages, Horses or Cattle shall be seized as forfeited under any Law or Laws of His Majesty's Customs or Excise, and no Person or Persons shall appear to the Officer or Officers who made such Seizure to claim the same, if such seizure shall happen to be made out of the Limits of the Chief Office of Excise in London, it shall and may be lawful for the Officer or Officers who shall make such Seizure or Seizures to make public Notice to be given by Proclamation at the next Market Town to the Place or Places where such Seizure or Seizures shall have been made, upon the Market Day next after the Expiration of six Days from the time of such Seizure or Seizures respectively, of the Day and Place when and where the Justice or Justices of the Peace will proceed to hear the matter of such Seizure or Seizures, and of Condemnation of the Goods so seized as aforesaid, to which case it shall and may be lawful for the said Justice to proceed to examine into the Cause of such Seizure or Seizures, and to give Judgment for the Condemnation of such Goods, and of the Casks, Vessels, or other Packages or Packages containing the same, and of the Batts or Batts, Cart or Carts, or other Carriage or Carriages, Horses or Horses, or Cattle found as aforesaid, as upon due Examination shall appear to be forfeited; which Judgments shall be as good, valid, and effectual in the Law to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever as if the respective Owner or Owners thereof, or Person or Persons in whose Custody the same was or were at the respective time or times of the Seizure thereof, had been respectively summoned to attend the said Justice.

XVII. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Forty fourth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, it was enacted that no Ship, Vessel or Boat belonging to the whole or in part to His Majesty's Subjects, or whereof One half of the Persons on board shall be Subjects of His Majesty, and not being a Luggers, and at the same time and rigged as such, shall have on board or be navigated by a greater Number of Men (Officers and Boys included) than in certain Proportions to the Number of Tons of her Measurement, or if a Luggers, she in certain Proportions; and that in case any such Ship, Vessel, or Boat shall be found or discovered to have been within certain Limits or Distances of the United Kingdom, having on board any greater Number of Men than in such Proportions, every such Ship, Vessel, or Boat, and all her Goods, Furniture, Ammunition, Tackle, and Apparel shall be forfeited: And whereas the Object of the above in part recited Clause was to prevent Vessels engaged in distant Voyages from having a greater Number of Men than was necessary for their Navigation, and which Exceeding made them better to carry on such distant Proceedings; and as it is expedient that square-rigged Vessels should not be so restricted, in order that a greater Opportunity may be afforded for the Employment of Seamen of the United Kingdom: It is therefore enacted, That nothing in the last recited Clause shall extend or be construed to extend to forbid any Ship or Vessel which shall be square rigged, by reason of any Man or Men exceeding the aforesaid Proportions.

XVIII. And Whereas by the aforesaid recited Act, passed in the Fifty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, it is required that the Owner or Owners of any Ship, Vessel or Boat requiring a Licence shall give the necessary Security for the same, as the Port to which such Ship, Vessel or Boat shall belong, and no other: And whereas it may happen that such Ship, Vessel or Boat may not be at the Port to which it is to belong at the time when a Licence and Security shall become necessary: It is therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England, Scotland or Ireland, or any Three or more of them respectively, in such cases, on Proof to their Satisfaction that the Master or Owner of such square Vessel or Boat really and bona fide intends to proceed without Delay (Wind and Weather permitting) to the Port to which she belongs, or is intended to belong, to grant a Certificate to such Master or Commander of such Ship, Vessel or Boat, of such Proof having been given, by virtue of which Certificate such Ship, Vessel or Boat, shall not be liable to Seizure on account of not being licensed, so long as such Ship, Vessel or Boat shall be in the Course of her Voyage (Wind and Weather permitting) to the Port to which her belongs or is intended to belong.

XIX. And Whereas it is required that the Persons who are to become Security shall be Persons approved by the Collector and Comptroller of the Customs sufficient and responsible, and it is expedient to require further Satisfaction as to such Sufficiency and Responsibility: Be it therefore further enacted, That the Persons who are intended to become Security, shall make Oath before the Collector and Comptroller of the Customs (who are hereby authorized to administer the same), that they are respectively possessed of sufficient Property to answer and pay the Sum for which they intend to become Security.

XX. And Whereas it is expedient, for the more effectual Execution of the Laws now in force or hereafter to be made for the Benefit of His Majesty's Revenue of Customs, and the Suppression of Smuggling, that the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs should be empowered to grant their Deputations to any such Person or Persons as they may think fit, although he or they may not hold any specific Office under the said Revenue, authorizing him or them to make Seizures of any Wine, Spirituous Liquors, Tea or Tobacco, or any prohibited East India or French Goods, or any other Goods specified in such Deputations, which may be subject to Seizure under any Law or Laws relating to the Revenue of Customs or Excise respectively, or any Vessel, Boat, Horse, Cattle or Carriage used or employed in the Importation or Removal of such prohibited or run Goods: It is therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England, or any Three or more of them for the time being, or for the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in Scotland, or any Three or more of them for the time being, to grant their Deputations to any Person or Persons to make Seizures of Wine, Spirituous Liquors, Tea or Tobacco, or any prohibited East India or French Goods, or any other Goods specified in such Deputations, which may be subject to Seizure under any Law or Laws relating to the Revenue of Customs or Excise respectively, or any Vessel, Boat, Horse, Cattle or Carriage used or employed in the Importation or Removal of such prohibited or run Goods, although such Person or Persons shall not hold or be appointed to any Office or Offices of the Customs in any specific Port or Place, and such Person or Persons so deputed shall and may make such Seizures in like manner as any Officers or Officers of the Customs; and such Person or Persons shall be subject to the like Penalties as Officers of the Customs; and all Seizures made by such Person or Persons so deputed shall be good law, prosecuted, and recovered by the like Means, Ways and Methods as any Seizures made by Officers of the Customs or Excise may by any Law or Laws now in force be and law, prosecuted and recovered.

XXI. And Whereas by the aforesaid Act passed in the Fifty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, it is enacted, that from and after the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and seven, every Ship or Vessel belonging to the Whole or in any Part to any of His Majesty's Subjects, whereof One Half of the Persons on board are Subjects of His said Majesty, and being a square rigged Ship or Vessel of the Burthen of Two hundred Tons and upwards, the Difference of whole Draught of Water forward and aft shall exceed One Inch and One Quarter of an Inch for every Foot of the Breadth of each Ship or Vessel, such Draught of Water to be ascertained by a Straight Line along the Rabbet of the Keel, adding to each Draught of Water forward and aft the Depth of the Main Keel in the Middle of the said Ship or Vessel on the Outside, and the Draught of Water to be taken when the said Ship or Vessel, whether light or loaded, shall be in Sailing Trim, which shall be found in the Limits of any Port of this Kingdom, or within any Part of the British or Irish Channels, or elsewhere within One hundred Leagues of the Coast of this Kingdom, for which a License shall not have been procured from the Commissioners of Customs for navigating the same, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of His Majesty's Army, Navy or Marine, or of the Customs or Excise: And whereas it is expedient that the said law in part recited Act should be repealed, and other Provisions made, it is therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the passing of this Act, every Ship or Vessel belonging in the Whole or in Part to any of His Majesty's Subjects, or whereof One Half of the Persons on board are Subjects of His said Majesty, (not being a square rigged Ship or Vessel of the Burthen of Two hundred Tons or upwards,) the Difference of whole Draught of Water forward and aft shall exceed One Inch and One Quarter of an Inch for every Foot of the Breadth of each Ship or Vessel, such Draught of Water to be ascertained by a Straight Line along the Rabbet of the Keel, adding to each Draught of Water forward and aft the Depth of the Main Keel in the Middle of the said Ship or Vessel on the Outside, and the Draught of Water to be taken when the said Ship or Vessel, whether light or loaded, shall be in Sailing Trim, which shall be found in the Limits of any Port of this Kingdom, or within any Part of the British or Irish Channels, or elsewhere within One hundred Leagues of the Coast of the Kingdom, for which a License shall not have been procured from the Commissioners of the Customs for navigating the same, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of His Majesty's Army, Navy, or Marine, or of the Customs or Excise.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That this Act or any of the Provisions thereof may be altered, varied or repealed by any Act or Acts to be called in that Session of Parliament.

and that he the said Henry Hall Vilemont Gage or his Heirs, and all other necessary Parties, should and would, on or before the Second Day of August which would and will be in the Year One thousand eight hundred and eighty, by such good and sufficient Covenants and Assurances as the Law Officers of His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, should reasonably advise or require, convey and assure the said Mosses, Mellagee, Dwelling Houses and other Houses, Lands and all and singular other the Inclosures and Premises thereto before contracted to be sold, with their and every of their Appurtenances (except as aforesaid), and charged severally with the due Payment of whatever Part or Parts of the said Purchase Money should then remain unpaid, and Interest in the same, unto and to the Use of The King's Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, or unto and to the Use of such Person or Persons, and upon such Trust or Trusts and in such manner and Form, as the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any Three or more of them, or the said Commissioners, Parties to the said Articles of Agreement, or the Commissioners for the time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, should direct or appoint, free from the Land Tax (the same having been redeemed), and from all other Charges and Incumbrances whatsoever (save and except certain annual Rents payable to Colonel Swelby, to the Duke of Sussex, to the Stewards at Redbank, to Myrdal Spenser and to the Poor of Swanton, as specified in the Survey of the said Estate, and which altogether amounted to the annual Sum of Sixteen Pounds Sixteen Shillings and Five pence, but did not exceed that Sum, and also except Three Horsetails payable to Colonel Swelby, and the Rents, Customs and Services thereto to become due to the Lord of the Manor of which the said Copyhold Premises were holden); and that the said Henry Hall Vilemont Gage, his Heirs, Executors or Administrators, should and would in and by such Conveyance covenant and declare, that the Lands called Malpas Wood, containing Seven hundred and twenty seven Acres Three Roods and Fifteen Perches, then in the Tenure of him the said Henry Hall Vilemont Gage, and the Lands containing Fifteen Acres One Rood and Two Perches, then in the Tenure of John Delany, Parts of the said Premises thereby agreed to be sold, were Extra Parochial, and warrant the same to be so; And the said Commissioners, Parties to the said Articles of Agreement, did thereby, for and on the behalf of The King's Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and by and with the Consent and Approbation of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, (referred as aforesaid, further consent, promise and agree, to and with the said Henry Hall Viscount Gage, his Heirs, Executors, Administrators and Assigns, that the said Sum of One hundred and fifty five thousand eight hundred and forty three Pounds Three Shillings and Two Pence, the Purchase Money aforesaid, should be paid by and out of the Land Revenues of the Crown to the said Henry Hall Viscount Gage, his Heirs, Executors, Administrators or Assigns, at such times, by such Installments or Proportions, and with such Interval as therein before in that behalf mentioned, is set the said Henry Hall Viscount Gage, his Heirs or Assigns, should make out and show a good and perfect Title to the said Manors, Messuages, Dwelling Houses and other Houses, Tenements, Lands, Hereditaments and Premises, and every Part thereof, and make and execute such Conveyance thereof as therein before mentioned, according to the true Intent and Meaning of the said Articles of Agreement :

And after agreeing in what manner, to what Proportions, and by whom the Expenses of the necessary Deeds, Conveyances, Affidavits for and the further Expenses incurred in the completing and perfecting the Purchase or Contract by the said Articles of Agreement made and entered into, it is by the said Articles of Agreement further agreed, that all Outgoings for the said Premises should be borne, paid and defrayed by the said Henry Hall Viscount Gage, his Heirs or Assigns, up to the said Second Day of August then and now next ; and that His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, should be entitled to the Possession of such Parts of the said Premises as were then in Hand on the said Second Day of August then and now next, and to receive the Rents, Issues and Profits of the Residue of the said Premises as and from that Day ; and after receiving that the Lands and Woods in the Parish of Down, Parts of the said Premises, had been valued to the Crown, in the Composition of the said Purchase Money, as being exempt from all Rents and Vicarage Tithes, it was further agreed, that if the said Henry Hall Viscount Gage, his Heirs or Assigns, should not make out and deduce a clear and satisfactory Title to the Tithe of the said last mentioned Lands and Woods, or to an Exemption from the Payment thereof, then and in such case the said Henry Hall Viscount Gage, his Heirs or Assigns, should either deduce or allow unto The King's Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, out of the said Purchase Money, the Sum of One thousand five hundred and eleven Pounds Five Shillings, or to the Beneficiaries of the said Commissioners solemnly His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, from any Loss, Damage, Costs, Charges or Expenses on account of such Tithe or any Claims or Demands in respect thereof ; and it was by the Articles of Agreement expressly agreed, that nothing therein contained should extend or be construed to charge the Commissioners, Parties thereto, in their own Persons, or their or any of their own proper Lands or Tenements, Goods or Chattels, with or for the Performance of any of the Contents or Agreements in the said Articles of Agreement contained, but that such Contents or Agreements should only be enforced as against the Land Revenues of the Crown ; and that all Costs, Charges and Expenses which should or might become payable by reason or means of any such Contents or Agreements, or any Breach or Non Performance thereof, should be referred, ruled, taxed and recovered by, from or out of such Revenues only, any thing in the said Articles of Agreement contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding : And after further resolving that it was intended to apply to Parliament in the then and now present Session for an Act to confirm the said Agreement, and to enable the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues to raise the Sums requisite to pay the several Installments of the Purchase Money before mentioned, as they should respectively become due, by Sales of competent Parts of the Land Revenues of the Crown, it was thereby expressly provided and declared, that if such Act of Parliament as aforesaid should not be passed in the present Session of Parliament, then the said Articles of Agreement and the Contract thereby made, and every thing therein contained, should cease, terminate and be wholly void : And Whereas from the Quantity of surviving Oak Timber now growing on the said Estates, Manors, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments by the said Articles of Agreement agreed to be sold and disposed of, and the Facility of converting the Timber growing thereon into use to the Government Dock Yards by Water Carriage, and from the Causiugy of the said Estates, Manors, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments to the Royal Family of Down, whereby the same may be managed in the Crown Lands by the Officers of the said Forest at a small Expense, the same appears to be a desirable Purchase, and it is therefore expedient to make Provisions for enabling the said Commissioners, Parties to the said Articles of Agreement, to make good the Contract thereby entered into on behalf of His Majesty, and to carry the same into Effect ; and in order to have a Fund ready for the Payment of the several Installments of the said Purchase Money as they shall respectively become due, it is expedient that the Commissioners for the time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues should be authorized and empowered to sell and dispose of certain Parts and Possessions of the Land Revenues of the Crown, to raise the Money which will be requisite to pay the said Installments as they shall become payable, and should be enabled to apply the Means so to be raised in the Payment thereof accordingly : And Whereas by an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, intitled An Act for the better Support of His Majesty's Household, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, it was amongst other things enacted and declared, that all every Grant, Lease or other Allowance, which from and after the Twentieth Day of March One thousand seven hundred and two, should be made or granted by the said Queen, Her Heirs or Successors, Kings or Queens of that Realm, under any of the Seals therein mentioned, or by Copy of Grant, Roll, or otherwise lawfully, of any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Tithes, Woods or other Hereditaments (Advowsons, Churches and Vicarages only excepted), to any Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, whatsoever, whereby any Estate or Interest should pass from the said Queen, Her Heirs or Successors, should be void and of none Effect, unless the same should be made for some Term or Estate not exceeding Thirty one Years or Three Lives, and unless there should be reserved by such Grants, Leases or Allowances

such Reversion as in the said Act is expressed; in which said Act is contained a Power, that where the greatest Part of the yearly Value of any Tenements or Hereditaments which belonged to the said Queen, Her Heirs and Successors, should, at the time of making any Lease or Grant thereof, consist of the Building or Buildings thereupon which might want to be repaired or re-edified, in every such case, to encourage the Rebuilding or Reparation thereof, it was declared and enacted, that it should be lawful for the said Queen, Her Heirs and Successors, at any time after the said Twentieth Day of March One thousand seven hundred and two, to demise or grant such Tenements or Hereditaments to any Person or Persons for any Term or Estate, in as such Term or Estate did not exceed Fifty Years or Three Lives, and in as such Lease or Grant should be made to commence from the Date of making thereof; or if such Grant or Lease should be made to take Effect in Reversion or Expectancy, that then the lease, together with the Estate or Estates in Possession of and in the same Tenements or Hereditaments should not exceed Fifty Years or Three Lives from the Date of making thereof as aforesaid, and to as the lease should not be made dispensable of Wills, and in as there should be returned and payable upon every such Lease or Grant during such Term, not exceeding Fifty Years or Three Lives, as much Rent as was by the said Act required to be returned for the same Tenements or Hereditaments respectively in case of a Lease not exceeding One and thirty Years or Three Lives and not otherwise: And Whereas since the passing of the said Act certain Parts and Portions of the Lands and Land Revenues of the Crown, which from their unmanageable Nature, inconvenient Situation or other Circumstances, were not desirable to be held or retained, have from time to time been sold and disposed of under the Authority of divers Acts of Parliament passed for that Purpose; and some Part of the Monies which have been produced thereby have been applied in the Redemption of the Land Tax charged on the Crown Estates, or have been for and appropriated for that Purpose, and some Parts thereof have been disposed of in the Purchase of other Estates of a more improveable Nature, which have been conveyed or granted in as to form and become Part of the Possessions of the Crown, and other Parts of such Monies have been appropriated to amercise and improve some Parts of the Crown Estates: And Whereas it would greatly tend to the better Management and Improvement of the Land Revenues of the Crown, if the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues were authorized and empowered to purchase and buy, with the Consent and Approbation of the Lord High Treasurer of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the time being, for and in the behalf of His Majesty, from time to time as advantageous Opportunities may arise or occur, any Estates, Manors, Lands, Townships or Hereditaments, (to become Part of the Land Revenues of the Crown, and to be placed within the Government and under the Ordering and Survey of the Court of Exchequer,) which can be procured on fair and reasonable Terms, which may be fit and advantageous or near to any of the Royal Forests, or to any other Estates already forming Part of the Possessions of the Crown, and which from their Situation or other Circumstances may be conveniently placed wholly or principally under the Management of the Officers or Agents having already the Care of such Forests or other Estates of the Crown, under the Superintendence and Council of the Commissioners for the time being of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues, and which in their Judgment shall be desirable to be purchased for and on the behalf of His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors; and that for raising the Funds necessary for effecting such Purchases, the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues should be authorized and empowered from time to time, by and with the Consent and Approbation of the said Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, to make Sale and dispose of any Part or Parts of the Possessions or Land Revenues of the Crown within the Ordering and Survey of the Court of Exchequer, which shall in their Judgment be desirable to be sold, and which shall be sufficient to make the necessary Purchase Monies for effecting and completing such Purchases; and that it is also expedient to make other Provisions for the benefit and Improvement of the Land Revenue of the Crown: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said herebefore in part recited Articles of Agreement, bearing Date the said Twentieth Day of May in this present Year One thousand eight hundred and seventeen, shall be and the same are hereby ratified and confirmed, and made valid and effectual in all Invents and Purposes whatsoever.

* Whereas Doubts have arisen whether under the Authorities thereby granted, the said Commissioners have
* Power of granting Leases in Exchange for other Leasehold Property; which Doubts it is expedient should * be removed; and it is likewise expedient that the leading Power contained in the said last recited Act and in
* this Act should be extended so as to comprise the Plot of Ground herein after described, and the Buildings
* erected or to be erected thereon; Be it therefore further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the
* Commissioners for the time being for carrying the said last mentioned Act into Execution, by and with the
* Consent in Writing of the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, or any
* Three or more of them, to demise or lease, or previous to any Demise or Lease to enter into any Contract or

* third Year of His present Majesty's Reign; but Doubts have arisen whether the same are within the Pro* visions of the said Act; but if all such Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments were
* expressly included in the Provisions for granting Leases comprised herein and in the said Act, it would
* remove such Doubts and tend to encourage Builders and other Persons to undertake the carrying into Exe* cution the Buildings and Works intended to be made with a View to the Improvement of the Western Side * of the said Street called The Haymarket, and behind the same as aforesaid, and such Improvement would be * of great public Utility; Be it therefore further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Com-

* thereof, at such Rent or Rents and under such Covenants, Conditions, Clauses and Restrictions, and either in * Exchange or not in Exchange for any other Houses, Buildings, Lands or Hereditaments, and in such manner
* as the said Commissioners for the time being for carrying the said last mentioned Act into Execution shall from * time to time, with such Consent and Approbation as aforesaid, judge proper and think most advantageous, and
* to receive and take any Fine or Pien for granting such Leases, and to apply all such Pien to the Purposes of * the said Act; and that every Lease of the said Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments
* heretofore demised, to be granted by the said Commissioners for carrying the said last mentioned Act into Exe-

Power extend to authorize or enable the said Commissioners to stop up the said Street called Market Row, and that each Street has ceased to be any longer used as a public Thoroughfare, in consequence of another Street or Way being about to be opened from Market Street into the New Street in Sea or Road thereof, and of the Alterations now made and making in the Neighbourhood thereof, and it is desirable that the said Street and the Soil and Freehold thereof should be vested in His Majesty, freed and discharged from all public or other Rights of passing or repassing over the same; Now therefore it is hereby further enacted, That the said Street or Place called Market Row shall hereafter for ever hereinafter cease to be a public Street, Way or Passage, and that the Soil and Freehold of the said Street or Place shall remain and continue in all things hereafter vested in His Majesty, His Heirs or Successors, freed and discharged from all public and private Rights of passing or repassing over and along the same, and that the same Street, and the Soil and Freehold thereof shall be liable to be sold, exchanged, leased or disposed of by the Commissioners for carrying the said last mentioned Act into Execution, in such and the like manner as any other of the Estates or Possessions of the Crown which are comprised within the Provisions of the said last mentioned Act, and which shall not be wanted for the Purposes of such Act, are thereby authorized to be sold, exchanged or leased.

XIV. And Whereas by an Inquisition taken on the Ninth Day of December in the Fifty sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, by virtue of a Commission issued out of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer, it was found that William Henry White was indebted to the Crown in the Sum of Forty one thousand Pounds; and the said William Henry White, at the Date of such Inquisition, was indebted or owed to a great Number of such Rents, which were heretofore Crown Rents, Chief Rents, Fee Farms and Quit Rents, or other such Rents issuing out of and payable from various Estates situate in many different Counties in England and Wales: And Whereas, from the said Rents being separately of small annual Amount, and being out of Estates situate and lying dispersed in different Counties and Parts of England and Wales, and elsewhere, the ordinary Course of Proceeding to a Sale thereof by Auction, and by making Sale thereof before the Deputy Remembrancer of the Court of Exchequer, will easily exhaust the Proceeds of such Sale; and it is therefore expedient to make other Provisions for the Disposal of such Rents: Be it therefore enacted, That all and every the Rents which were heretofore Crown Rents, Chief Rents, Fee Farms, Quit Rents or other such Rents issuing out of and payable from any Estates, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments whatsoever, in England or Wales, the same may be Estates, which were the Property of or belonging to the said William Henry White, or in or to which he was in any way seized or entitled on or subsequent to the Ninth Day of December in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and Fifteen, shall, from and immediately after the passing of the Act, vest in the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues for the time being (subject to the Power of Assize of the said William Henry White therein, if any such shall be entitled to), in Trust to sell and dispose thereof in manner hereinafter directed; and the said Commissioners shall and they are hereby authorized and empowered, as soon as conveniently may be after the passing of the Act, to contract and agree with any Person or Persons, every Body or Bodies Public or Corporate, for the Sale of and absolutely to make Sale and dispose of all or any of the said Rents hereby vested in them in Trust, as aforesaid, at or for the best Price or Consideration in Money which the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues can reasonably procure for the same.

XV. And for facilitating the Conveyance of the aforesaid Rents to the respective Purchasers thereof, be it further enacted, That whosoever the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests and Land Revenues shall have contracted with any Person or Persons, Bodies Public or Corporate, for the Sale of any Rent or Rents hereby authorized to be sold by them, the said Commissioners shall grant unto the Purchaser or Purchasers thereof a Certificate under their Hands, specifying the Rent or Rents so contracted for, the Estates from whence they issue, and the Amount of the Purchase Money to be paid for the same; and the Customers of the Bank of England, or one of them, shall, upon the Production of such Certificate, accept and receive from such Purchaser or Purchasers the Purchase Money therein specified, and at the Foot or on the Back of such Certificate acknowledge the Receipt of the said Money, without Fee or Reward, and return the said Certificate and Receipt to the Purchaser or Purchasers; and from and immediately after such Purchase Money shall be so paid, and such Receipt given, and thenceforth for ever, the respective Purchasers of all and every or any of such Rents, and their Heirs, Successors or Assigns, shall by force of this Act be adjudged, deemed and taken to be in the actual Seizin and Possession of the Rents so by them respectively purchased, and shall hold and enjoy the same peaceably and quietly, and as fully and amply to all Intents and Purposes as the said William Henry White, his Heirs or Assigns, might or could have held or enjoyed the same if the said Estate had never been aliened.

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That no Penalty or Costs incurred by any Spiritual Person by reason of any Non Residence on his Benefice, shall be levied by Execution against the Body of any such Person, whilst he shall hold the same or any other Benefice out of the Parishes of which the same can be levied by Sequestration within the Term of Three Years; and in case the Body of any such Spiritual Person shall be taken in Execution for the same, the Court to which the same was committed, or any Judge thereof, may and shall, upon Application made for that Purpose, discharge the Party from such Execution, in case it shall be made to appear to the Satisfaction of such Court or Judge that such Penalty and Costs can be levied as aforesaid.

35 G. 3. c. 123.

WHEREAS certain Acts passed in the Forty fifth, Forty sixth, Fifty fifth and Fifty sixth Years of His present Majesty, relating to the Redemption of the Land Tax, authorized the Commissioners appointed by His Majesty's Royal Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain for carrying into Effect certain Powers and Provisions of the Land Tax Redemption Act, to direct the Exemption and Discharge of the Land Tax charged upon Hereditaments belonging to Livings or other Ecclesiastical Benefices or Charitable Institutions, in the manner and under the Direction in the said respective Acts respectively contained or referred to; and pursuant to the Powers so vested in the said Commissioners, they have executed and discharged the Land Tax charged upon the Hereditaments belonging to several Small Livings and Charitable Institutions: And Whereas it may be expedient to augment the Income of other Small Livings, or other Ecclesiastical Benefices, and of Charitable Institutions not already exempted from Land Tax, by exempting the same from the Land Tax charged on the Hereditaments belonging thereto respectively in the same manner as heretofore contained: Be it therefore enacted by The King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for any Two or more of the Commissioners appointed or to be appointed by His Majesty by His Royal Letters Patent under the Great Seal, pursuant to a Provision contained in an Act passed in the Fifty fourth Year of His said Majesty's Reign, entitled An Act to alter and amend certain of the Powers and Provisions of several Acts passed for the Redemption and sale of the Land Tax, and for making further Provision for the Redemption thereof, at any time or times after the passing of this Act, to direct the Exemption and Discharge of the Land Tax charged upon the Messuages, Lands or other Hereditaments belonging to any Livings or other Ecclesiastical Benefices or Charitable Institutions, in cases where the whole clear annual income of such Livings or other Ecclesiastical Benefices or Charitable Institutions respectively shall not exceed the Sum of One hundred and fifty Pounds, without the Transfer or Payment of any Consideration for the same, in the manner and under the Direction and Restrictions in this Act mentioned.

Commissioners under Great Seal pursuant to 35 G. 3. c. 123. &c. may exempt Small Livings and Charitable Institutions, not exceeding upon a Year, from Land Tax, without Transfer or Payment of Consideration. Income, &c. no greater than income to be realized of Income of Livings, &c. and of Commissioners of Hereditaments, &c. and Amount of Land Tax.

II. And be it further enacted, That every Inhabitant of any such Living or other Ecclesiastical Benefice, and all Officers or Trustees of any such Charitable Institution, who shall be desirous that the Hereditaments belonging to such Living or other Ecclesiastical Benefice or Charitable Institution should be exempted from Land Tax under the Provisions of this Act, shall, within Two Years after the passing of this Act, transmit a Memorial to the said Commissioners, verified in such manner as they shall require and direct, showing the Nature and Description of the Property or other Funds or Sources from whence the Income of such Living or Ecclesiastical Benefice or Charitable Institution is derived, and the Amount of Income derived from each respectively; and shall also at the same time transmit to the said Commissioners a Certificate, signed by the Clerk to the Commissioners of the Land Tax acting for the District, Town, Parish or Place where which the Hereditaments belonging to such Living or other Ecclesiastical Benefice or Charitable Institution shall be situate (which Certificate such Clerk is hereby required to grant), containing a Description in Writing of such Hereditaments, and the Name of the Parish or Place, or Parishes or Places, where which the same shall be situate, and the Amount or Amounts of the Land Tax charged thereon.

Commissioners may signify their dissent, putting both Memorials and Certificate.

III. Provided always, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, if they shall deem it expedient, to enlarge the time by this Act limited for the Transmission of any such Memorials and Certificates as aforesaid, for any further Period not exceeding Six Calendar Months from the Expiration of the Period by this Act limited as aforesaid for the Transmission thereof; and all Memorials or Certificates which shall be transmitted to the said Commissioners within such extended Period shall be as valid and effectual to enable the Exemption of Land Tax under the Provisions of this Act, as if the same had been transmitted within Two Years from the passing of this Act; and further, that if any such Memorials or Certificates which shall be transmitted either within the said Period of Two Years, or within the said extended Period, shall be found defective in Form, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to allow such time for the Amendment thereof as they in their Discretion shall think fit, and, upon Return thereof in their amended State, to examine the Hereditaments therein referred to from the Land Tax, as effectually as they could have done if such Memorials or Certificates, when originally transmitted, had not required Amendment.

Defects of Form in Memorials and Certificate may be corrected if transmitted within the time limited.

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, by Writing under their Hands, to certify and declare that all the Hereditaments belonging to any such Living or other Ecclesiastical Benefice or Charitable Institutions as aforesaid shall be wholly freed and exempted from the Land Tax charged thereon, and from all further Assessments thereof; and such Hereditaments shall thereupon, and notwithstanding it may afterwards appear that any of them, or any Part thereof, were granted to be rated to the Land Tax at the same such Certificate of Land Tax shall have been obtained, be wholly freed and exempted from all Land Tax and all further Assessments thereof, from such of the quarterly Days of Payment of Land Tax as shall next precede the Day on which such Certificate of Exemption shall be left at the proper Office, for the Purpose of being duly registered in the manner heretofore prescribed.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the Principal Sums contained in the Exchequer Bills which shall be advanced or lent by the said Commissioners for the Execution of this Act in Great Britain, under the Authority of the said recited Act, the Payment whereof shall not be otherwise provided for pursuant to the said recited Act, shall be repaid without Deduction or Abatement, together with Interest for the time at and after the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, to the Callers or Callers of the Bank of England, at their Office, by the Space of Fifteen Days at least before the time when each such Exchequer Bill shall become payable according to the Provisions of this Act; such Interest to be computed on the said Principal Sums from the Date of such Exchequer Bill to the time of the Payment thereof.

III. And whereas it is expedient to afford full time before the Return of the Writ for the polling of Freeholders at the Election of a Knight or Knights to serve in Parliament for any County in Ireland, It is enacted, That immediately after the Receipt of the Writ for making any such Election, it shall and may be lawful for the Sheriff of such County, and he is hereby required, to make on the Back thereof the Date of receiving the same, and within Two Days after the Receipt thereof to cause Proclamation to be made at the Place where the said Election ought by Law to be holden, and to cause to be affixed on the Door of the County Court House public Notice thereof, signed by himself, of a Special County Court to be there holden, for the Purpose of such Election only, on any Day, Sunday excepted, not later than the Day of making such Proclamation and affixing such Notice than the Sixteenth Day, nor later than the Tenth Day.

IV. And be it enacted, That whenever in any one Barony or Half Barony of any County in Ireland, the Number of Freeholders registered within Eight Years previous to the Text of the Writ for holding such Election, and exceeding Twelve Calendar Months previous to the Text of such Writ, shall exceed Two thousand, it shall and may be lawful for the Sheriff, and he is hereby required, on receiving written Notice thereof from any Candidate, to divide alphabetically, as equally as can be (but in as not in any case to divide the Names beginning with the same Letter), all the Names of the Freeholders so registered in such Barony or Half Barony, in that it shall not be necessary for more than Two thousand to poll in any Booth, and so credit as many more Booths, or hire as many more Buildings, as may be necessary for the Purpose, and to appoint as many additional Deputies or other Officers as shall be necessary, to take the Poll at such additional Booths or Buildings, not exceeding One Deputy and One Poll Clerk to each such Booth or Building; and the Expense of every such additional Booth or Building, and the Wages of every such additional Deputy or Officer, at the same Rate as other Booths or Buildings, and as other Deputies or Officers, shall be paid in the Sheriff by all Candidates jointly on Demand.

VI. And Whereas by an Act passed in the Tenth Year of His present Majesty, intituled As it is amend the Laws for regulating the Election in Ireland of Members to serve in Parliament, it is (among other things) enacted, That when a Poll shall be demanded at any Election of a Member or Members to serve in Parliament for any County, City, Town or Borough in Ireland, the Returning Officer or Officers at any such Election, after such Poll shall be demanded, shall, at the Instance and Request of any Candidate or Candidates at such Election, under his or their Hand or Hands, immediately after such Request, and before he or they shall proceed further in taking the Poll, retain, maintain and appoint Two or more Jurors of the Peace (as the case may require) to administer the Oaths and Declarations required in and by an Act passed in the Tenth Year and Fourteenth Years of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled As it is made His Majesty's Statute, of whatever Parliament, in which their Majesty is King, and also another Act, passed in the Thirtieth third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled As it is for the Relief of His Majesty's People or Roman Catholic Subjects in Ireland; and that the Clerk of the Peace, or a Deputy by him appointed to Writing under his Hand for that Purpose, shall attend such Persons: And Whereas there are other Oaths besides those contained in the said Act which Voters at Elections of Members to serve in Parliament may be by Law required to take, the proper Mode of administering whereof is accorded with Duty and Convenience, be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for such Jurors of the Peace as are appointed, and they are hereby empowered and required, severally and at different Places separate and apart from the Place where the Poll shall be taken, to administer all the Oaths and the Declarations and Affirmations required to be taken or made by Persons offering to vote at any Election (the Bribery Oath or Affirmation only excepted), which Oath or Affirmation shall be taken or made at the Place of taking the Poll, at the Desire of any Candidate or Elector, by every Person offering to vote at any Election, as before the passing of this Act.

the Poll; and that the said Oaths and the said Declarations and Affirmations shall respectively be administered to as many of the Electors, being ready and desiring to take or make the same respectively, as can conveniently take or make the same together, not exceeding the Number of Twelve at one time; and each Returning Officer or Officers shall also do, provide and deliver to each Person who shall be appointed by him or them in manner aforesaid, a sufficient Number of printed Certificates, agreeable to the Form heretofore directed, to be filled up as Occasion may require, and signed by the Clerk of the Peace or his Deputy, appointed or chosen as aforesaid, according to such Person as aforesaid, and delivered to such Elector so taking the said Oath or declaring or affirming as aforesaid.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case the Candidates or any of them shall, Three Days at least before any such Election, give or cause to be given Notice in Writing to the Returning Officer or Officers, to provide proper Places for administering said Oaths, Declarations and Affirmations to the Electors, then and in every such case Notice or such other proper Places shall be prepared and provided, in as to be ready before and against the Day of Election; the Expense of which Notice or Places, and of the said printed Forms, and also the Allowance and Compensation (if any) to be made to the several Justices of the Peace administering said Oaths, Declarations and Affirmations as aforesaid, for their Trouble and Attendance, not exceeding One Guinea a Day to every of them, and also the Allowance and Compensation to be made to the Clerk of the Peace or his Deputies, appointed as aforesaid, for their Trouble and Attendance, not exceeding Half a Guinea a Day to every of them for each Day of Attendance, shall be defrayed and repaid by the Candidates at such Election, in equal Proportions, to the Returning Officer or Officers who shall have incurred such Expenses.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That the Clerk of the Peace shall and is hereby required to attend, or send his Deputy to attend, during the whole of every Election of Members to serve in Parliament, the Returning Officer or Officers in his or their Booth, Court or Building where he or they shall preside at such Election; and the Clerk of the Peace or his Deputy shall bring with him all the original Affidavits of the Registry of Freeholds, and shall, on Demand of the Returning Officer or Officers, or his or their Affiant, produce such Affidavits as may be required by him or them.

XV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall be lawful for the Returning Officer or Officers, and he or they in and are hereby required, on Demand or Request in Writing of any Candidate or Candidates, immediately after such Request, to obtain, nominate and appoint as many competent Persons to act as Interpreters as there shall be Places of Polling, or Places of taking the Oaths, Declarations and Affirmations as aforesaid, in that one such Interpreter shall attend each of such Places to read and faithfully such Oaths, Declarations and Affirmations, and such Questions and Answers as are heretofore or hereafter required to be taken, made, asked or given at the Place of Polling, and also before the Persons appointed to administer Oaths, Declarations and Affirmations as aforesaid; and every such Interpreter shall, immediately after such Appointment, and before he shall take upon him to act under such Appointment, take the following Oath, which the Returning Officer or Officers are hereby required to administer:

- I, A.B. do swear, That I will faithfully interpret such Oaths, Declarations, Affirmations, Questions and Answers as I shall be directed to interpret by the Returning Officer or Officers, his or their Deputies, and the Persons appointed to administer Oaths, Declarations and Affirmations at this Election.

And the Allowance and Compensation to be made to the several Persons appointed as aforesaid for their Trouble and Attendance, not exceeding Half a Guinea a Day to every of them for each Day of Attendance, shall be defrayed and repaid by the Candidates at such Election, in equal Proportions, to the Returning Officer or Officers.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That at all Elections at which any Person shall tender his Vote as having a Freehold, the Deputy presiding in any Polling Booth or Building shall previously examine such Person as to his Name and Residence, as to the Value, Terms and Situation of his Freehold, and whether it arises from a Rent Charge; but it shall not be lawful for any other Person, besides the Deputy, whether Bailiff, Attorney, Agent, Candidate, Elector or other Person, to plead or speak to or examine any Person tendering his Vote, on any Pretence whatever, during the Continuance of the Poll, or in any of the Polling Booths.

XVII. And Whereas Docters have written as to the Power of Rejection and Examination of Persons tendering their Votes by the Deputies of Returning Officers: Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall not be lawful for any Deputy to examine any Person tendering his Vote, except as heretofore directed; and that if any Objection shall arise as to the Right of such Person to vote, such Objection shall be forthwith referred to the Returning Officer or Officers; but it shall not be lawful for any Deputy to investigate such Person's Right to vote, nor to reject such Person's Vote, without Reference to the Returning Officer or Officers.

XVIII. And Whereas great Delay has taken place from unnecessary Searches for original Affidavits of Registry at various Elections, notwithstanding the Freeholders tendering their Votes had produced legal Certificates of them having registered their Freeholds: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That after the passing of this Act, in every case in which a Person offering to poll shall produce a Certificate of Registry in manner and form by Law required, without Error or Incompleteness, such Certificate shall be deemed conclusive Evidence of his having duly registered such Freehold; but if any Variances between such Certificate and the Book of Registry shall appear to the Deputy, or if no such Certificate shall be produced by such Person, it shall and may be lawful for such Deputy, and he is hereby required, to refer such Petition, if objectionable, to the Returning Officer or Officers, or his or their Assessor or Assessors, who, or one of whom, are hereby exclusively authorised to examine such Petition's original Affidavit of Registry.

XXIX. And Whereas by an Act of the Irish Parliament, passed in the Thirty-seventh Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intitled An Act for the further Regulation of the Election of Members to serve in Parliament, it is enacted, that any Person intitled to a Freehold, not consisting of a Rent Charge, shall declare in register 4, in proof of the Value of Fifty Pounds or Twenty Pounds, be both in the Oath or Affirmation therein provided, name the Parish or Parishes, and the Townland or Townlands in which such Freehold may be situated; And Whereas it is expedient that the Name of the Parish or Parishes should in the said Oath be stated, and that the Townland or Townlands, or other Description by which the Place is generally known, whereas the Freehold is situated, be named in the said Oath or Affirmation: Be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Person intitled to a Freehold, not consisting of a Rent Charge, who shall desire to register it as being of the yearly Value of Fifty Pounds or Twenty Pounds, to make in said Oath or Affirmation the Name of the Parish or Parishes in which said Freehold may be situated, and to name therein the Townland or Townlands, or other Description by which the Place is generally known, whereas the said Freehold may be situated.

XXX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Person who shall be by due Course of Law convicted of having polled a Second time at the same Election, except as hereinafter mentioned, or of having persecuted any other Person for the Purpose of polling at such Election, shall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and be transported for Seven Years to some Part of His Majesty's Dominions out of Europe, or be imprisoned for any term not more than Seven Years, at the Discretion of the Judge or Judges who shall try such Person.

XXXI. And Whereas it is expedient that Persons having Freeholds under the yearly Value of Twenty Pounds, and subject only to CROWN or QUART RENT, or sitting from Free Farm Grounds, or under a Lease or Leases for ever, or for Lives renewable for ever, should have the Power of voting at Elections for Members of Parliament, although they should not reside thereon, or occupy such Freeholds by selling or grazing, or to the Amount of Forty Shillings yearly Value thereof: Be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for Persons having Freeholds under Twenty Pounds yearly Value, not consisting of a Rent Charge, and liable only to CROWN or QUART RENT, to register the same in like manner as is provided for Persons having Freeholds of the yearly Value of Twenty Pounds in an Act of the Thirty-seventh Year of His present Majesty, notwithstanding in part recited.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That such Person so registering his Freehold, shall insert in the Act of Registry the Words "Forty Shillings," instead of the Words Twenty Pounds or Fifty Pounds; and shall add the following Words, "and that the said Freehold does not consist of a Rent Charge, and that it is liable to no Rent, except CROWN or QUART RENT," or "that it sits from a Free Farm Ground," or "that I hold it under a Lease or Leases for ever," or "that I hold it under a Lease or Leases for Lives, renewable for ever," as the case may be.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That every Person who shall offer to vote by virtue of a Freehold under the yearly Value of Twenty Pounds, and holding the same subject only to CROWN or QUART RENT, before he be admitted to poll, shall make the same Affirmation and take the same Oaths as are now provided for Persons having Freeholds of the Value of Twenty Pounds: Provided always, that such Person shall in such Oaths make the same Alterations and Additions as are herein set forth in the Oath of Registry for such Person.

XXXIV. And Whereas by Under Statutes passed by the Parliament of Ireland, and also by the Forty-fifth of His present Majesty, it is enacted, that every Oath or Affirmation made and subscribed at any Sessions of the Peace for Registry of any Freehold, shall be read aloud in open Court and signed by Two of the Justices presiding therein: And Whereas the Number of the Justices who are empowered to act within several of the Counties of Cities and Towns in Ireland, agreeably to the Charter thereof, is extremely limited in Amount, and often confined to a great Degree to those who from Age and Infirmary are incapacitated for the Performance of Duty: And Whereas it is necessary to provide against any such or other Inconvenience or Delay of Persons possessed of Freehold Property who wish duly to register such Freeholds, and to qualify themselves for exercising the elective Franchise: Therefore be it enacted, That in all Counties of Cities and Towns in Ireland, the Mayor or other Chief Magistrate of such County of a City or County of a Town, or other his sufficient Deputy appointed by him pursuant to the Charter, or in case of his Death or Absence from such City or Town, shall continue to hold such General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for one entire Day after the Criminal and other Business of every such Session has been fully transacted, commencing his Sitting at the Hour of Two in the Forenoon, for the Purpose of registering all such Freeholders as present themselves for that Purpose, in such manner and form as now required by Law; and that the said Mayor shall continue his Sitting until the Hour of Four in the Afternoon, and administer all the Oaths and sign all Certificates which are now required by Law to render the Registry of such Freehold valid; and that the Signature of such Chief Magistrate or his Deputy shall be singly and of itself a sufficient Attestation of such Registry, in place of the Signatures of Two Magistrates as now required by Law, and shall be then and there delivered by such Mayor or his Deputy to the Clerk of the Peace, to be filed and kept among the Records of the Court.

XXXV. And it is hereby further enacted, That if the Mayor or other Chief Magistrate shall, by himself or his sufficient Deputy, neglect or wilfully omit to hold any such Session, in manner and form as herein-before required, or to admit to register their Freeholds therein such Persons duly qualified to do so, present themselves for that Purpose to the said Mayor or Chief Magistrate, such Mayor or Chief Magistrate in offending shall forfeit the penal Sum of One hundred Pounds for each and every such Neglect of Duty; and if the Clerk of the Peace or his sufficient Deputy shall neglect or omit to attend at such Sessions of the Peace, and then and there to do all Acts now required of him by Law for the Registry of Freehold, such Clerk of the Peace shall forfeit the penal Sum of Fifty Pounds; such Penalties to be recovered by Information in any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Dublin; One Moiety whereof shall be payable to our Lord the King, and the other Moiety to him who shall sue for and recover the same.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That from and after passing the said recited A.D. at any Election for any Member or Members to serve in Parliament for any County, City, Borough or Town in Ireland, every Person whom the Returning Officer or Officers shall refuse to act as a Clerk for taking the Poll, shall, before he commences to take such Poll, take the following Oath:

"I, A. B. do swear, That I will truly and indifferently take the Poll at this Election, and set down the Name and Residence of each Voter, the Value, Tenure, Situation and Place and Date of Registry of his Freehold, and whether sworn to or affirmed by such Voter, as the case may be, and for whom he shall poll."

Which Oath of every such Poll Clerk the said Returning Officer or Officers may or are hereby authorized and required to administer.

XXVII. And Whereas it is necessary to guard against improper Conduct of Returning Officers at such Elections for Members to serve in Parliament, Be it enacted, That every Returning Officer who shall be by due Course of Law convicted of having acted corruptly or partially in the Execution of his Duty of Returning Officer at any Election for Members to serve in Parliament, shall be adjudged guilty of a high Misdemeanour, and be imprisoned for Three Years; and each Person, so convicted, is hereby declared to be for ever incapable of holding any Office or Situation, Civil or Military, under the Crown.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That any Deputy Sheriff, Commissioners for administering Oaths, Deputies and Assistants as aforesaid, Poll Clerk, Clerk of the Peace or Deputy Clerk of the Peace, appointed as aforesaid, or Interpreter, absconding himself, shall forfeit all Commissions for Attendance during such Elections; and the Returning Officer or Officers may or are hereby authorized and required, in case of the Absence of any such Person or Persons, immediately to appoint, as before herein directed, a Justice or Persons to fill his or their Place or Places.

XXIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That any Returning Officer, or Deputy Returning Officer, Sheriff or Deputy Sheriff, Clerk of the Peace or Deputy Clerk of the Peace, or other Officer herebefore mentioned, who shall refuse or neglect to perform his Duty according to the Provision of this A.D. shall forfeit Ten Pounds with Treble Costs for each and every such Instance of Refusal or Neglect, to any Person suing for the same at any Session of the Peace within Twelve Calendar Months after such Instance of Neglect or Refusal.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That no Sheriff of any County in Ireland shall appoint, after the passing of the present A.D. any Person to act as his Deputy, unless such Person shall be a Freeholder of such County, having a Freehold of the yearly Value of Fifty Pounds at least above all Charges; and such Sheriff is hereby required to demand, upon Oath, of each Person offering to be sworn as Deputy, whether such Person has a Freehold of such Value.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That in case of the Death or Sudden Absence of the Returning Officer or Officers during the Continuance of the Poll, it shall and may be lawful for the first sworn Deputy, who shall be sworn by himself for this Purpose before the Commencement of the Poll, and he is hereby required, under the Penalty of Forfeiting One thousand Pounds to any Person suing for the same, to proceed in the Poll, and to act in every respect for all the Purposes of the Election as if he had been originally Returning Officer, and take the Oath as directed by Law for the Returning Officer at the Commencement of the Poll, which any Two Justices of the Peace are hereby authorized to administer, and proceed in the Poll, and to act in every respect as Returning Officer for all the Purposes of such Elections, as if he had been originally Returning Officer, and shall make a Special Return of the Votes, as the case may be, under his Authority shall be previously sanctioned by the Recovery of the Returning Officer, or the legal Appointment of a new one, as the case may be.

XXXII. And Whereas it is expedient, in the Event of the Death of any Candidate during a Poll, that all Persons who have given their Votes for such Candidate should be enabled to vote once again; Be it enacted, that the Authority aforesaid, That in all cases where it shall be made to appear to the Returning Officer, upon Oath of any credible Witness, which Oath he is hereby empowered and directed to administer at any time before the Poll is finally closed at any Election, that any Candidate for whom any Votes have been given at such Election shall have died, then such Returning Officer shall cause public Notice thereof to be given, and shall direct such Poll to be adjourned till the next Day, and in such case every Elector who shall have voted for such deceased Candidate shall be admitted, if he think fit, to vote over again: Provided always that nothing herein contained shall extend to enable any Person who shall have so voted for any deceased Candidate to vote again for more than one Candidate, or to give such Votes in favour of any Candidate for whom he shall have before voted.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That in every such case of any Person being so admitted to vote a Second time, the following Words shall be omitted out of the Oaths or Affirmations now directed by Law to be taken or made by every such Person before he is admitted to poll: (that is to say), "And that I have now been before polled at this Election;" and then to him thereof the following be subjoined: (that is to say), "and that I have polled at this Election for A. B. now deceased."

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That at any Election for any County, City, Borough or Town in Ireland, it shall be lawful for any Returning Officer or Officers to summon all Constables, Bailiffs or other

Peace

Peace Officers, to attend and keep the Peace at each Election; and that any such Constable, Bailiff or Peace Officer neglecting to attend during the whole of each Election, shall forfeit each Office of Constable, Bailiff or other Peace Officer, and all Salary due to him.

XXXIV. And be it further resolved, That any Constable, Bailiff or other Peace Officer, convicted of a Breach of the Peace during such Election, shall be adjudged guilty of a Misdemeanor, and be imprisoned for any term not more than Twelve Calendar Months.

XCVI. And be it further enacted, That the Returning Officer or Officers, or his or their Deputy or Deputies, at any Election, shall have Power, and be he or they are hereby authorized, to commit all Persons to Goal, without Bail or Mainprize, who shall be found voting or attempting the Poll, or wilfully preventing the Approach of Electors to the Place of polling: provided that the time of such Imprisonment shall not in any case exceed Twenty four Hours.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That all former Acts of Parliament, made for the Regulation of the Election of Members to serve in Parliament for Places in Ireland, not heretofore repealed, are hereby confirmed; and enacted, except as the same are herein amended or altered.
